

I just listened to someone's long message about their being on vacation, then I left a message and now I realized I have to call them back to say one more thing...Can I skip their greeting?

Yes. By pressing 1 when you start hearing it, the system jumps to the beep for you to record your message. This way you can save precious time, and if calling from a payphone, money too.