

What Can I Do If I Have Spyware

On My Computer?

- 1) If you have spyware on your computer, you should download an anti-spyware program and an anti-virus program. The computer services section of Mount Saint Vincent website provides links to helpful programs that will allow you to fix these issues.
- 2) You can access the free download section by clicking on the following link:

Free Downloads