After you have assembled your entry portfolio, your sponsor should review it and complete the remainder of this form. All materials must be received by the Admissions Office no later than February 1. The winner will be announced in late February. Additionally, the winner of the Fonthill Scholarship, regardless of major, is expected to continue to develop as a writer by either taking at least 12 credits in writing courses, or by participating actively in the College literary magazine, yearbook, and/or newspaper. The student must also maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 while at the College of Mount Saint Vincent.

For the Sponsor

Please review the applicant's entry before certifying it. Your estimation of how accurately the writing samples submitted represent the applicant's ability will be considered by the review committee in making their final decision.

In your judgment, are the two writing samples truly representative of the student's best work?

Yes____ No____ (If no, please attach a brief explanation to this application.)

I certify that the autobiographical sketch and writing samples are the work of the applicant:
