

2006 CROSS COUNTRY REPORT

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS:

MEN:

Mount Saint Vincent - 4th place at Stevens Invitational
 Pratt Institute - 3rd place at CUNY meet at Van Cortlandt Park
 St. Joseph's - 7th place at the Stevens Invitational
 Webb - Competed at the Bard College Invitational

WOMEN:

Mount Saint Vincent - 3rd place at Stevens Invitational
 Pratt Institute - 2nd place at CUNY meet at Van Cortlandt Park

HVWAC RUNNER OF THE WEEK:

TERESA ESCOBAR - Mount Saint Vincent
 Senior - Highland Falls, New York (O'Neill)

HVMAC RUNNER OF THE WEEK:

E.J. MADDOX - St. Joseph's Soph. - Staten Island, New York (St. Peters))

Mount Saint Vincent senior Teresa Escobar earns HVWAC Runner of the Week this week after a show-stopping performance at the Stevens Invitational on Friday. Not only did Escobar shine at the first race of her Cross Country career, but she finished in first place overall, and led the Mount to a third place finish.

HVWAC EVENTS THIS WEEK:

SUNDAY, OCT. 1 - CNR, Mount Saint Vincent, Medgar Evers, Pratt, and St. Joseph's will all compete at the Lehman College Invitational at Van Cortlandt Park. The race begins at 10:00 AM.

St. Joseph's sophomore E.J. Maddox enjoyed a fine debut to his Cross Country career, finishing in 12th place overall at the Stevens Invitational as he completed the course in 32:08. Overall, St. Joseph's finished in seventh place at a very competitive meet.

HVMAC EVENTS THIS WEEK:

SUNDAY, OCT. 1 - Webb, Mount Saint Vincent, Pratt, and St. Joseph's will all compete at the Lehman College Invitational at Van Cortlandt Park. The race begins at 10:00 AM.