Cooper Union goalie Fabio Alvino-Roca turned in the performance of his young career on Thursday, making six saves on six shots for his first career shutout as the Cooper Union Men's Soccer team downed Mount Saint Vincent during a game played at Mount Saint Vincent. It was Cooper Union's first ever win over Mount Saint Vincent in Men's Soccer. Roca has played in every game this season, and has not allowed a goal for the Hawks, who are currently in second place in the HVMAC and have completed their Conference schedule.

Culinary goalie Kyle Spencer ensured that goalies would sweep the weekly awards this week as his stellar play allowed Culinary to remain atop the HVMAC. Spencer stopped all 10 shots as Culinary downed Webb, 8-0 last Saturday. Spencer has not allowed a goal this season, shutting out both Cooper Union and Webb.
