While most coaches would say that moral victories do not exist, the St. Joseph's Women's Basketball team may have had one on Saturday. During an up and down year thus far, the Lady Bears gave Skyline Conference powerhouse Old Westbury all they could handle on Saturday and lost 79-76. During the loss, senior Lynette Reyes earned HVWAC Player of the Week for the third time this season, scoring 20 points and adding seven rebounds, two assists, and two steals during an exception effort by St. Joseph's as they shot 44% from the floor during one of their finest shooting efforts of the season.	MERRY CHRISTMAS, HAPPY HANUKKAH, AND HAPPY NEW YEAR FROM THE HVWAC!
ROOKIE OF THE WEEK TOVA LAUFER- Yeshiva University Sophomore - G - New York, NY (Ramaz)
During a tough stretch for Yeshiva last week, the Lady Macs did have a bright spot from sophomore Tova Laufer, who is competing on the team for the first time this season. During a loss to Purchase College on Sunday, Laufer registered a double-double with 13 points (on 4 for 9 shooting) and 10 rebounds against a very strong Purchase College team that has not lost a game to an HVWAC team this season.
