2005 ALL-SKYLINE CONFERENCE WOMEN'S SOCCER TEAM

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

SIENA YORK-CARR

Stevens Institute of Technology

Junior • Midfielder • Davis, Calif. (Davis Senior HS)

Stevens Institute of Technology junior midfielder Siena York-Carr has been selected as the Skyline Conference Player of the Year in women's soccer. York-Carr currently has 19 points on five goals and nine assists. She finished the season with a flourish, recording game-winning goals in each of the Ducks' last four games, including both games in the Skyline Conference Tournament. The MVP of the Skyline Tournament, York-Carr ranks fourth in the conference with 0.45 assists per game.

CO-ROOKIES OF THE YEAR

COURTNEY CADEN

St. Joseph's College

Freshman • Setauket, N.Y. (Ward Melville HS)

SALME COOK

Stevens Institute of Technology

Freshman • Fairfax, Va. (W.T. Woodson HS)

St. Joseph's College forward Courtney Caden and Stevens Institute of Technology back Salme Cook share Skyline Conference Rookie of the Year honors. Caden recorded 18 points on eight goals and two assists in 18 games as a freshman. Five of Caden's goals were scored in conference play. Cook anchored a Stevens defense that allowed just 18 goals all season, including only two in eight games against Skyline opponents. She also recorded five goals and two assists for 12 points.

COACHING STAFF OF THE YEAR

TONY ELMORE

College of Mount Saint Vincent

Second-year head coach Tony Elmore and his coaching staff at Mount Saint Vincent have been selected as the Skyline Conference Coaching Staff of the Year in women's soccer. Elmore guided Mount Saint Vincent to a 10-7 overall record, an improvement of seven wins over his first season (3-10). Mount Saint Vincent ranked second in the Skyline Conference in goals per game (2.94) under Elmore's leadership.
