In most cases, allowing 27 runs over seven innings of work for a pitcher does not constitute Player of the Week honors for a sport like softball. But for CSE hurler Katrina Lajiness, there is a major exception as her statistics came against nationally recognized powerhouses Salisbury University and Capital University. During 7.2 innings of work against both squads, Lajiness allowed only a combined six earned runs and struck out four, while walking only six. While CSE went 0-2 in Salisbury, Lajiness's performances against some of the best competition in the nation was nothing short of sensational.	LAST WEEK'S RESULTS: 3/16 Salisbury 21, Saint Elizabeth 0            3/17 Capital 17, Saint Elizabeth 0            3/19 North Central College 8, St. Joseph's 0            3/20 Calvin College 8, St. Joseph's 0; Kalamazoo 12, St. Joseph's 8            3/22 Sciences &amp; Arts of Oklahoma 10, St. Joseph's 0            3/24 Saint Elizabeth 17, Marymount 0; Saint Elizabeth 10, Marymount 0; Pacific Lutheran 12, St. Joseph's 0
ROOKIE OF THE WEEK  JULIANNE BASMAGY - St. Joseph's  Freshman - P - Brooklyn, NY (James Madison)
Speaking of fine performances against stiff competition, St. Joseph's had their fair share of it while attending the Tuscon Invitational in Arizona. While the Lady Bears went 0-5, freshman Julianne Basmagy was terrific, pitching 22.1 innings over five games, and allowing 33 earned runs. She walked only nine batters in five games and held four opponents to single digits. She also had three RBI's during a loss to Kalamazoo (MI) College on March 20.
HONOR ROLL
KRISTIN IZZO - St. Joseph's: Izzo, a senior, hit .364 and scored two runs during an 0-5 week for the Lady Bears at the Tuscon Invitational in Arizona.
